

Note: All questions are compulsory.

Q.1.A.State the following true or false :

(05)

- Manufacturing sector is also called as secondary sector.
- Inbound tourism comprises non-residents travelling into a country of this choice.
- ISO 16000 is set up to measure volatile organic compounds in atmosphere.
- Green business is part of green consumption.
- Water compounds which are neither metabolised nor excreted but get stored in the tissues of the organism is called bioaccumulation.

Q.1.B. Mark the following on the supplied map of Konkan:

(05)

- A hot spring in Thane district.
- A hill station in Raigad district.
- A beach in Ratnagiri district.
- A fort in Sindhudurg district.
- Atomic power plant in Thane district.

Q.1.C. Mark the following on the supplied Map of Mumbai :

(05)

- A beach in Mumbai.
- A pilgrim centre in Mumbai.
- A lake in Mumbai.
- A cave in Mumbai.
- A dumping ground in Mumbai.

Q.2. Explain briefly the advantages and disadvantages of air and water transportation. (15)

OR

Q.2. Explain briefly the industrial regions in India.

(15)

Q.3. Classification of New Tourism.

(15)

OR

Q.3. Explain the economic consequences of tourism.

(15)

Q.4. Explain important environmental movements in India.

(15)

OR

Q.4. write a note on carbon bank and carbon trading.

(15)

Q.5. Explain the sources and types of wastes.

(15)

OR

Q.5. What are the different methods of waste management and write a note on concept of seven R's.

(15)