    How strange now, looks the life He makes us lead;
    So free we seem, so fettered fast we are!
    I feel he laid the fetter: let it lie!
  - b) If a man spends lavishly on his library, you call him mad a bibliomaniac. But you never call one a horse-maniac, though men ruin themselves every day by horses, and you do not hear of people ruining themselves by their books."
  - c) Should life all labour be?Let us alone. Time driveth onward fast,And in a little while our lips are dumb.Let us alone. What is it that will last?
  - d) Lovely all times she lies, lovely to night –

     Once passed I blindfold here, at any hour;
     Now seldom come I, since & came with him.
  - e) A common greyness silvers everything,—
    All in a twilight, you and I alike
    —You, at the point of your first pride in me
    (That's gone you know),—but I, at every point;
    My youth, my hope, my art, being all toned down
    To yonder sober pleasant Fiesole.
  - f) What pleasure can we have
