

LL.M.(with Credits)-External-Semester 2012 Sem II
Course Code D03 Group D : Economic Legislation

P. Pages : 1

Time : Three Hours

GUG/W/16/5480

Max. Marks : 80

-
- Notes : 1. Attempt Five questions in all including Q. No. 1 which is compulsory.
2. All questions carry equal marks.

1. Write notes on Any two.
 - a) Doctrine of pari delicto.
 - b) Pardanashin Women.
 - c) Doctrine of Frustration.
 - d) Void and Voidable Agreements.
2. The Principle of Quantum Meruit developed In English Law but also has application in India. Elaborate with the help of recent case laws.
3. "The Indian Penal Code protects the consumer by initiating criminal proceedings against the producers / traders for their illegal acts." Comment.
4. Examine the composition, powers and procedure of Consumer Redressal Agencies.
5. "An arbitration clause has a life of its own and may survive where the main contract comes to an end" – Discuss the status of an arbitration clause in the light of provisions of Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996.
6. Explain the scope of the term "Arbitration Agreement". Is it possible to execute or arbitrate an agreement once the dispute is being adjudicated for? What is its binding effect when parties to the dispute are not same as parties to the Agreement?
7. The power exercised by the Chief justice of the High Court or chief justice of India under section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act is a judicial power. Critically Analyse?
8. Discuss the Law relating to Interim measures u/sec 9 of the Arbitration & Conciliation Act, specially when the place of Arbitration is out side India with special emphasis on Bhatia International Vs. Berk Trading S.A., AIR 2002 SC 1432.
