

QP Code : 12237

(3 Hours)

[Total Marks : 100

N.B. 1) Attempt any four questions

2) All questions carry equal marks.

3) Cite relevant case laws.

Q.1 Explain in detail on “Public Interest Litigation work” as a judicial arm creating new dimensions for achieving justice, thereby forming a significant part of Judicial Process.

Q.2 Write short notes on the following:

- a) Legal Development through Codification
- b) ‘Judicial Review’ as Special dimension of ‘Judicial process’

Q.3. Write on the notions of “Precedent” as a part of Judicial Creativity. Explain with relevant cases.

Q.4. Explain in detail about the “Concept of Justice under western theories of Justice and “Concept of Dharma” in India for attaining justice.

Q.5. Logic, history, customs and accepted standard of right conduct are the prominent forces, shaping the process of Law. Illustrate with examples.

Q.6. Explain, with examples that the “Judicial Process” is potent creativity of Judges which helps in the growth of Law. Cite examples and case law.

Q.7. Throw light on the scope, necessity and limitations of “Judicial Activism” in Judicial Process”. Cite relevant case Laws.