A great part of Arabia is desert. Here there is nothing but sand and rock. The sand is so hot that you cannot walk over it with your bare feet in the daytime. Here and there in the desert are springs of water that come from deep down under the ground so deep that the sun cannot dry them up. Theses springs are few and far apart, but wherever there is one, green grass very soon covers the ground all around it. Soon fig trees and palm trees grow tall and graceful making a cool, green, shady place around the spring. Such a place is called oasis.

The Arabs who are not in the cities live in the desert all the year round. They live in the tents that can be put up and taken down easily and quickly. So that they can move from one oasis to another, seeking grass and water for their sheep, goats, camels and horses.
